

CARAMOOR STUDENT STRINGS

This program provides an opportunity for middle and high school string players to work with members of Caramoor's Ernst Stiefel Quartet in Residence during both the fall and spring semesters.

THE PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- An in-school "Concert and Conversation" with the quartet
- A clinic at Caramoor for selected students
- Free voucher for half-price tickets for students and their families to attend the quartet's concert

BEFORE THE VISIT:

Through conversations with quartet members, teachers help design the content of the workshop.

“Since our trip to Caramoor, I have been making an extra effort to practice my violin every day for as long as I can. The music the quartet played was music from the heart, and I hope that one day my music can be just as moving.”
